

COAL SHORTAGE A MYTH, SAYS THE SPEAKER

Sensational Charge Against the Coal Operators Made in Speech in House.

Washington. — Representative George Huddleston, Democrat, Alabama, charged in the house today that the National Coal association had spent $50,000 for advertising space in 400 newspapers in "an effort to make the people buy coal now at exorbitant prices through belief of an impending shortage."

"Nothing except an act of congress," he said, "will stay this infamous attempt on the part of coal operators to take advantage of suffering humanity next winter. I insist that congress pass such an act and take it out of the power of the operators to profiteer."

"There is no coal shortage and no labor shortage, but there is a shortage in common honesty on the part of coal operators."

30,000 Miners Idle

Charleston, W. Va., August 17.—Thousands of miners and their families in the Logan, Coal River and Cabin Creek fields face starvation in the next two or three days and now actually are suffering privations as the result of the freight and passenger tie-up on branch lines of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad by the shopmen's strike, according to word received here today, by coal companies which operate in that section. More than 300 mines have been closed down and 30,000 men thrown out of work by the strike, reports said.

On account of the rough mountainous topography of the country surrounding the mine fields it is impossible to transport foodstuffs by other means than railroads, to feed the 125,000 population there. The desperate situation of the mining communities, it is said, will be placed before a meeting of striking shopmen tonight at Huntington.

DOWN WITH H. C. L.

When the Anti-Saloon League started its crusade against John Barleycorn and began the cry, "Down with Barleycorn!" The Herald and about two thousand of our ilk took up the cry with the echo, "That's the dope. Down with Barleycorn!" Well, Barleycorn is down and there to stay.

Now we are going to invite the attention of some sort of league to another pesky gentleman who is causing us even a little more trouble than Mr. Barleycorn of posthumous fame. That is Mr. H. C. Living, who is pushing every one he can get to the limit and tries to keep ends together and the hungry wolf away from the door. Mr. H. C. L. is a very hard gentleman to deal with, as he cares very little how much trouble he puts us to, and we advise that a crusade be started against him. Fight at once. Get the women started; they will do the work. Let them go for him teeth and toe nails for a while and call off your railroad strikes, as you won't need them. Women always get results. But what we're hoping is that they will get results soon or we won't be able to enjoy them when they come.

PRISONER KILLS EVANSVILLE DEPUTY AT NEW ALBANY, IND.

Louisville, Ky., August 19.—William Engle, of Evansville, who was accompanying Deputy Sheriff Ruhl, of Vanderburgh county, acting as guard for two prisoners on their way from Evansville to the reformatory at Jeffersonville, was shot and killed at about 12:15 o'clock today at the interurban station in New Albany by John Cole, white, one of the prisoners.

Engle and Ruhl had the prisoners, Cole and a negro named Clarence Huff, at the station and Ruhl left for a few moments to attend to some business. As Engle stood at the door of the station with the two men, who were handcuffed, a woman approached and handed Cole something. Engle turned to see what she had given the man when he heard the command

"throw up your hands," and found himself facing a revolver.

Before he could make a move Cole fired, the bullet striking Engle in the head. The guard fell to the sidewalk and the men ran. He was picked up and rushed to the hospital, where he died a few moments later.

In the meantime a crowd of people started out in pursuit of the two prisoners, who ran up an alley and finally made their way to East Third street, where they entered the home of Jacob Eller and took refuge in his parlor. Cole handed his gun to Eller's son, Louis, who held the men until the officers arrived and took them in charge.

A few moments after the shooting a woman, who claimed to be the wife of Cole, was arrested at the Schlenk garage on Main street. Aside from declaring that Cole was her husband she would make no state whether she had handed the pistol to Cole.

The woman was identified as Margaret Parquet, of Evansville. At first she told the authorities that she and Cole were married, but later admitted that they had only been living together as husband and wife. Cole is said to have a wife living at Flint, Mich.

William Engle, who was killed, is survived by his wife and seven children.

L. G. & E. TEAM 9 — McHENRY 0

Rockport, Ky., Aug. 18, 1919. The Rockport and Echols Base Ball teams have consolidated and the team is now known as the Louisville Gas and Electric Team. To celebrate the boys went to Martwick last Sunday and beat the best they could send against us by a score of 12 to 4. Not satisfied with that they went to McHenry yesterday and showed the natives how the grand American game should be played to the tune of 9 to 0. Runt Harrell hit the first ball pitched for a home run and thereby served up the game. He also made another score in the third on a three bagger and Wilson's error on Hick. This finished the scoring until the eighth when the L. G. & E. made seven more on four hits, two errors and three fielders during which Parrot was forced to leave the mound.

A. Fulkerson was given excellent support and showed all through the game that he was thoroughly able to handle anything that was sent before him. He allowed only four hits and struck out ten aspiring McHenryites. The game was full of thrills and a number of good fielding plays were pulled. Reid, of McHenry, started a fast double play when J. Fulkerson hit a liner over Short with Morris on second. Moch Watson finished the double killing. W. G. Her, of Rockport has been chosen playing manager of the L. G. & E. team and Jess Shultz, of Echols arranges for the games. Any team wanting a game can arrange for it by communicating with the above.

NEW YORK MAN LIKE SOLOMON

Has Eight Living Wives and Loves Them All Deeply;
Quotes Scripture.

New York.—Flye feet four in his darned old socks (neatly and as the case maybe) stands Charles lovingly darning by this or that wife H. Wilson, a thin, kind-hearted, worried little man accused of bigamy. Bigamy means having two wives and Wilson says he has eight but the lawpoks don't say anything about "octogamy," and so they made it "bi."

"Guilty," he said, when arraigned before Judge Wedhams to-day in General Sessions.

"How many?" demanded the court.

And when the little fellow straightened up and answered "eight," there was a murmur in the courtroom. He stood there sturdy as a willow plume and contemplated everybody with compassionate eyes.

Judge Wedhams' interest in the case appeared to be for a moment more "scientific" than "legal." He wanted to know how such things could be.

"Well, I'm a Y. M. C. A. worker and a traveling salesman and a Bible student, and I used to be a physical instructor," said Wilson.

"To on," said the court.

"In the Bible," Wilson continued, "I studied especially the lives of Solomon and David and Jacob, and they all had many wives."

Judge Wedhams rubbed his eyes vigorously, looked carefully at Wilson, examined him from shoes to bald spot and inquired:

"About these women you married—were they—well, what sort of women were they anyway?"

"They were trustful, Christian, economical women," said Wilson with dignity.

"But what did they marry you for?" insisted the court.

"They came to me in distress," said Wilson, "and I was merciful to them."

"Could you make that a little clearer?" asked Judge Wedhams.

"Well, two of them were in trouble," said Wilson, "so I helped them."

Turning to economics, the high cost of living etc., Judge Wedhams asked how it was possible to support so many.

"I am a traveling salesman, as I said before," was the answer. "At times I make $50 or $60 a day. Besides, four of my wives were widows and had money when I married them. Also I didn't support all of them all the time. They were distributed over a period of nineteen years. I met them here and there in my travels, most of them in church. And I loved them all."

Judge Wedhams gave it up and said he would impose sentence Friday.

WOULD PREVENT RAILROAD STRIKES

Manufacturer Suggests That President Be Empowered
To Intervene.

Washington.—Power of intervention, in order to prevent labor disputes from interrupting regular railroad operation, would be vested in the President of the United States if suggestions made to-day to the House Interstate Commerce Committee by Stephen B. Mason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, are adopted.

Mr. Mason who says his organization includes 5,000 firms, and is the largest group of single shippers in the country, did not appear, but sent statement of his recommendations.

His plan provides:

"First, that whenever in the opinion of the President of the United States dispute over hours, wages or working conditions threatens interruption of a carrier essential to civil or military governmental needs or free movement of commerce between the States, or with foreign nations, he shall appoint a commission to investigate and decide the merits of the controversy, and until such finding is made any strike or lockout shall be unlawful."

"Second, that, under authority established by the decision of the Supreme Court in the Adamson case, whenever a labor dispute threatens operation of an instrumentality of interstate commerce, the President shall have the power to appoint a commission which would write a contract for the parties in dispute, to be binding on them until they reach voluntary agreement, in which event their agreement would supersede that of the commission."

"Through this legal, practical method, freedom of contract would be left unimpaired unless and until the parties are unwilling or unable to agree, in which event the supreme interest of the public is asserted through its representatives."

Hittest objection was made to the Plumb plan in the statement of President Mason.

"It is the first step through the gateway of State Socialism to the operation of transportation and industry under a soviet control," he declared.

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT

Through the courtesy of County Farm Agent, M. L. McCracken, we obtained the following report of the agricultural conditions in the Kentucky States last year and we believe it would be of interest to our readers, so submit it:

Heavy reductions in the estimated production of wheat, corn and potatoes in Kentucky, compared to July 1 estimates, are the features of the Government monthly crop report, issued here today by H. F. Bryant, field agent of the United States Bureau of Crop Estimates.

Tobacco shows some reduction from July estimates because of rather poor conditions in some sections, but as there is a big acreage, especially in the burley belt, and it can yet make a full normal yield if given favorable weather, the estimate of tobacco production is not greatly reduced.

Probable corn production in Kentucky is estimated at 83,365,000 bushels compared to a July 1 estimate of 91,066,000 bushels and a crop last year of 93,600,000 bushels; wheat this month is estimated at 11,506,000 bushels compared to a July 1 estimate of 12,992,000 bushels and a production of 12,129,000 bushels last year; potatoes 5,494,000 bushels compared to prospects July 1 for 5,812,000 bushels and a crop last year of 5,625,000 bushels; and tobacco 442,173,000 pounds compared to a July 1 and last year's production of 475, estimate of 469,893,000 pounds 000,000 pounds. This estimate on tobacco, will be greatly increased later, however, if favorable weather prevail during the latter part of August and most of September.

Rye production in Kentucky this season is estimated at 713,000 bushels compared to $84,000

Fruit is a poor crop in Kentucky apples being estimated at only 3,249,300 bushels, peaches 804,000 bushels and pears 281,000 bushels. Condition of other crops in Kentucky is reported as follows: alfalfa 85 percent; millet 80; pasture 80; cowpeas and other field peas 80; field beans 75; tomatoes 82; cabbage 76; onions 90; grapes 65; watermelons 70; muskmelons 72; broom corn 80; sorghum for sirup 80; average yield of clover hay 1.4 tons per acre.

COLORED INSTRU-

TOR'S SPEECH

Prof. Williams, of St. Louis, instructor at the colored institute which was held here last week, delivered a forceful and potent address on "Education" at the courthouse, Thursday evening to a large audience of both white and colored people. This was one of the greatest speeches to which we have ever listened, logical, direct and compelling. He took up and discussed the different analyses of education and proved that its disciplinary value, linked with its power of mental expansion, makes it a necessity as well as an advantage to any man or woman who would reach the full height of intellectual stature and realize the most enjoyment of life. An interesting program, including musical selections, was also rendered.

BEAVER DAM WALS-

LOPS FODSVILLE

In a raucy game Sunday afternoon, on the ball diamond at Fodsville, the speedy Beaver Dam baseball team laid the Fodsville team in the shade by a score of twenty to four. It was a case of winning for the Beaver Dam team from the first inning to the ninth when the game closed. The chief batter for Beaver Dam was Halie Monroe and the pitcher was Glendon Stevens.

A double header will be played at Beaver Dam Saturday afternoon at which Beaver Dam will cross swords with Millwood and Drakesboro. A hard-fought contest is expected as both the opposing teams are in good playing conditions and humors.

WILL NOT SIGN REPEAL

OF DAYLIGHT LAW

Washington August 18.—President Wilson, it was said today, will veto the law proposing repeal of the daylight saving act. The measure has been before the president since August 5 and he is expected to return it to congress before the efforts to pass the agricultural bill with its repeal rider over the president's veto failed last month and leaders in both house and senate doubt that the two-thirds majority necessary to pass the repeal law over the executive's head can be mustered.

STREET RAILWAYS PROBLEM CAUSING GRAVE CONCERN

Expert Declares That Municipal Ownership is the Only
Real Solution.

Washington, August 17.—Municipal ownership is the only solution for the American street railway problem, public control of private lines having broken down, Delos F. Wilcox, a New York franchise expert, today told the federal electric railway commission. To remedy the situation, he said, the railways should yield a fixed return and service should be the governing motive of operation. Disruption of the street car service through strikes should be prevented and strikes outlawed and penalized. The operatives should organize and be given a voice in the administrative policy and disciplinary matters.

The declaration for municipal ownership, backed up by legislative steps to clear the way for the ultimate acquisition of the existing lines, will meet the immediate needs of the trolley companies, he said.

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Reuben A. Anderson, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Hartford, died at the home of his son, Carl Anderson, Friday morning of pneumonia. Mr. Anderson had only been ill for a short time when pneumonia developed.

He was born 71 years ago, near Whitesville, in Davies county, and served three years in the Union army during the war. He was married fifty-one years ago to Fronia Catherine Hayes and to this union were born nine children, eight of whom survive and one having died several years ago. Those children who are living are: Thomas and Carl and Mrs. Ollie Barnett, of this place; S. A. Anderson, of Louisville; J. A. Anderson, of Owensboro; W. F. Anderson, of Steubenville, Ohio; Mrs. Luther Norris, of Owensboro and Mrs. Jack Travis, of Denver, Colorado. He was a member of the Christian church. Funeral services were held at the home and interment was at Oakwood, Saturday. Funeral by Rev. R. D. Bennett.

AND STILL MORE TROUBLE.

The Herald will go to its readers scanty of local news this week, though much is happening and it ought to be a newsy issue. The reason is in the breakdown of our machinery which occurred Saturday and prevented us settling up our news matter. These things are beyond our province of prevention and cannot be helped, so our readers will excuse our lack of local matter with the hopes that it will be at least a week before we are obliged to apologize again.

Dancing Dell's Devilish Delight

Below we produce a letter by an anonymous writer which has come to our desk and as we try to be impartial in giving both sides of a question, we submit it to our readers. The dancing question seems to be getting pretty warm and the more the merrier. Read it for yourself:

To Hartford Herald:

I would like to give Mr. Ben T. Taylor my opinion of dancing. First of all, I would like to ask Mr. Taylor if he knows any one who lives every hour of the day according to the Bible and worships God in a sanctimonious long-jawed and pious manner all the time? Now I believe in doing all the good we can. In all the ways we can. I am an old woman and I began dancing at ten years old. I have square danced and round danced with men and I have nothing to regret, nothing to blush for, that resulted from dancing. I wanted all of my daughters to take dancing lessons. I don't want any body to be immoral either on a dancing floor or the crowded pulpit of our many protracted meetings and call it the Devil. How do you suppose our boys and girls are to know each other if they are not permitted to meet and associate with each other? Are you going to make a moral man or woman by keeping them away from each other? Sure! dancing girls like to dance with each other but they like a whole lot more to dance with some nice mannered handsome boy. By the way, did you ever hear of a Christian preacher that wanted to preach to men alone? How many people would go to church if only one sex were

P. S. Note: And so, in the language of Byron, "On with the present? Where can a boy or girl meet and talk with as many of opposite sexes as at a dance? I have no respect for the pure innocent girl who has been kept so by lock and key or constant surveillance of parents. I had far rather one of my boys would choose for his wife a girl who has made a mistake and learned better, one who knows men and accepts him because she loves him, than to marry some 'pure innocent' who has no mind that can't be trusted. A girl does not think constantly of immoral things on the dancing floor. Each one has much to do; they have to hear the music, keep time and step, be as graceful as possible and keep off of the others' corns and hear what they say. Teach young people to dance, to sing, to play musical instruments and give them a chance to learn sense and to act sense; teach them to work and play. Let them go, and go with them and enjoy yourself too. If you tell people not to go to places the Devil is there, they are sure to go and they won't look for anything but the Devil until they find him. It is my opinion, Mr. Taylor, there is much good and much bad in all things. Occasionally the parson runs away with the deacons wife, so I say again, "Let us do all the good we can, in all the ways we can, to all the people we can, as long as we can."

TWO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENTS AT OWENSBORO

Ellis Gipe, U. S. Navy, and J. W. Lightfoot Are Victims

Owensboro, Ky.—Two were killed in auto accidents near Owensboro this morning.

The first accident occurred at midnight, on the Leitchfield road, when a roadster driven by J. W. Lightfoot, running fifty miles an hour, left the road and turned over into an eightfoot ditch, in which there was a foot and a half of water.

Mr. Lightfoot, who is manager of an electrical concern, had his neck broken.

Two girls and C. C. Gilhart also were in the car and were held beneath it for two hours before being rescued.

The girls were not badly injured. Mr. Lightfoot was 35 years old and leaves a widow. His body was taken to Henderson to-night for burial.

The second accident occurred this morning at 10 o'clock, when Ellis Gipe, of the United States navy, home on a furlough, was driving his father's car on the Livermore road at about forty miles an hour.

A tire burst and the car skidded into a ditch and turned over four times, finally hitting a telephone pole. Gipe died at the hospital.

FRENCH ARE FRANTIC OVER EXHIBITANT COST OF U. S. DOLLAR

Banker Says Yanks, Fighting France With Money, Are Worse Than Thugs

Paris.—The upward trend of the dollar is causing great financial uneasiness in France. The dollar on the Paris Bourse this evening closed at 7 francs 57 centimes, having reached 7 francs 76 centimes during the course of the daily transactions.

An afternoon newspaper to-day devoted its front page to "The white of the dollar." Bon Soir, in its leading article, said the franc, which was worth 20 cents before the war, now was equal to 12 cents.

A leading French banker said to the correspondent this afternoon: "We are entirely in the hands of the Americans. Please do not abuse your power. If this driving up the franc continues France will be bankrupt before New Year's day. The Germans fought us with machine guns. You do it with dollars. This is more treacherous."

It sympathetically with the dollar the round sterling also is moving, having sold this afternoon at 33 francs 35 centimes.

DEMOCRATS ARE VERY CONFIDENT OF BIG VICTORY

Gov. Black Pleased With Prospects; Tom Rhea Campaign Chairman

"Confidence of victory in November was the spirit of the Democratic nominees at our meeting held in Louisville Wednesday evening, when Tom Rhea was the unanimous choice for campaign manager," stated Governor James D. Black, who was in Owensboro yesterday to deliver an address at the Knights of Columbus picnic. "I am confident we will be capable of rolling up a majority of from 20,000 to 25,000 at the final election."

"Naturally all of the candidates are exhausted from their campaigns, but since the election each of us has been receiving communications from every county in the state, which indicate that the Democrats of Kentucky are aroused to the necessity of enrolling the fight into the camp of our ancient enemy, and while the Republicans have overwhelming majorities in the mountains of Kentucky, I feel assured their majorities will be very materially reduced this fall."

Continuing the governor said: "Of course with the prosperity that is being experienced throughout the country at this time the citizens have their attention engrossed on their own affairs, but when their attention is directed to the issues involved in the forthcoming campaign, there will be no hesitancy on the part of the voters to support the Democratic nominees. The ticket is a strong one, and with the platform which the Democrats will build at the convention to be held, there will be little for the Republicans to fight on, except their old programs, which have become threadbare."

Denounces Profiteering

"I have within the last few days appointed a commission composed of strong, clean and intelligent men and women to investigate the high cost of living, and while it will be sometime before this commission will be able to arrive at any conclusions, I am quite confident that the members of that commission will make a thorough and searching inquiry into the alleged profiteering in Kentucky and I sincerely hope that the commission will make a report upon which some action can be maintained against the greedy profiteers if there are any persons of this ilk in the confines of the commonwealth of Kentucky."—Owensboro Messenger.

In reply to your request for my opinion of the DeLaval separator, will say that I surely think it pays to use a separator if you have as many as three or four cows. I have been using the De Laval for two years and have never used any other for this one has always given me perfect satisfaction. It is easy to operate and I can wash mine in fifteen minutes giving it an extra special weekly boiling, and cleaning of the stand. This is much less time than I would have to give to pans and such by hand skimming, to say nothing of the extra cream, and the extra labor saved in carrying my milk to the cellar and putting it away so that the cream would rise.

Acton, Brothers are now housed in their new apartments and the new building is quite an improvement over the one formerly occupied by them. Three stories in height, the building is of brick with skylights and upper stories for the purpose of storing furniture and is a splendid location. They will also have a garage in connection with it but this is not yet completed.

A VACATION FROM DUTY

The heat of summer, though it be a discomfort to all others in Washington, has proved a convenience to the Republican leaders of the House of Representatives. It has provided them with an excuse for a month's recess from the pain and labor of doing nothing.

While in their refuge from the torrid halls of Congress—the Republican leaders may contemplate their recent record of "masterly inactivity."

In a two months' special session, which they sought to compel President Wilson to call for their own partisan purposes, the Republicans have passed only those bills which could and would have been enacted by the previous Democratic Congress but for the filibuster in the Senate last March.

As to the vital legislation which President Wilson recommended, which the country demanded and which the Republicans promised, they have done worse than nothing. They have not merely failed to act—by bickering and jealousies among themselves they have made affirmative action impossible. Great measures of reconstruction for the adoption of which the special session was called have either been defeated or allowed to go without the slightest consideration.

Legislation for the railroads, the passage of the reclamation act, the adoption of a program for the development of water power, the reorganization of the army, the establishment of a budget system, the outlining of a maritime policy, the abolition of luxury taxes, the safeguarding of immigration, the protection of American industries brought into being by the war, notably the manufacture of dyestuffs—all these are in the catalogue of Republican omissions.

The recess may bring the Republican leaders of the House of Representatives surcease from the heat of summer, but their culpable neglect and incompetence as the country's responsible legislators will expose them to the heat of popular indignation.

CONSIDERING OF TREATY TO BE EXPECTED

Senator Hitchcock Forces Committee to Agree On Rushing Peace Pact

Washington.—At a stormy session to-day the Senate Foreign Relations Committee agreed to expedite consideration of the peace treaty. Rereading of disputed sections and the consideration of possible amendments will begin to-morrow.

Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, ranking Democrat of the committee was understood to have told the committee that unless there was early committee action an attempt might be made to force a vote on the treaty in the Senate.

Chairman Lodge and others were understood to have expressed assent to the proposal to hasten the committee's consideration, but Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, was said to have taken the position that any precipitate action would be impracticable.

During the debate which was in executive session, it was reported members had a bitter argument. Senator Fall, Republican, declaring that Senator Hitchcock and others had questioned the motives of the Republicans and made unfair reflections on the committee's course. Senator Hitchcock was said to have replied with equal vigor.

People Want Action

It was said Senator Hitchcock told the committee there was an increasing demand in the Senate and throughout the country that the treaty be disposed of, and that he expressed the belief that virtually every Senator already had made up his mind how he would vote.

Senator Lodge is understood to have replied that he also favored action as soon as practicable, but that so far there had been no avoidable delay in the treaty's consideration.

Senator Fall gave it as his opinion that to hasten ratification would be unwise as settlements to which the United States would be asked to assent still were to be determined in other treaties not yet in the hands of the Senate.

The discussion in the committee was interrupted, as related to the insistence for action, by the group of Republican Senators who have agreed on a reservation programme which they believe will have the ultimate assent of the Democratic leaders. They also expect that in their plan they will have the cooperation also of Chairman Lodge.

SISTER SEEKS BROTHER 10 YEARS; FINDS HIM IN DEATH HOUSE CELL

A press dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says:

Through publication of pictures of eight men awaiting execution in the Ohio penitentiary, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, of Columbus, learned that her brother, Edward Ness, of Cincinnati, for whom she had searched 19 years, was one of the condemned men, and is to be executed October 16 for the murder of William Thie, of Cincinnati.

"I'm your sister," Mrs. Wilson said, approaching Ness' cell in the death house.

"Lillian?" asked Ness.

"Yes."

"How did you know I was here?"

Ness asked hazily, evidently not thinking of the present but the time when he last saw her, 19 years ago, at which time he was 16 years old.

Ness, it is said, had hoped that his sister would not learn of his crime and condemnation.

Mrs. Wilson explained that she had seen pictures of the condemned men and had visited the penitentiary, hoping that it was a mistake and that she would not find her brother there.

Both wept as Ness broke down and said:

"It was liquor that did it."

The sister attempted to comfort him and promised as she left him to make a final appeal for his life.

THE GREATEST REMEDY ON

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their ill health can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished becomes weak, thin, sluggish. Ailments of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble all of these can often be traced directly to acid-stomach.

We are inclined to believe the Hartford Republican ran a Herald special last week.

Many of the crushed flowers of hope are bound into the bundled sheaves of memory.

Chicago always was a fast city. When they went to have a war they could do with nothing slower than a race war.

We have had strikes, agitation, aggravation and insurrection, and still the cost of living gets higher. Hang the profiteers.

The passion and the fire of the soul is saved only for youth. Those in age may pluck the faded flower but the ineffable fragrance is forever gone.

If the Senate ever gets through debating partisan politics and other big issues, maybe they will find time to consider a small thing like a world treaty of peace.

The rosy anticipations of youth grow mellow with the afterglow of age when the "bye and bye" and the "long ago" are wed by the golden cord of years.

There are still a few old fogies in Ohio County who have the old native curiosity that makes them want to see how a financial statement of Ohio County would look in print.

There are many waiting on the sunset shore for their ship to come in. Little knowing that their fabled barque, with all its precious cargo, has sunk long since far out in the briny deep.

With wars and revolutions setting Europe to burning like a smouldering mass of debris, with life and limb unsafe across the waters and with the prospect of transportation home very limited, the tourists seem to be catching the spirit of the old watchword, "See America First."

We do not deny the article printed under the heading "Newspaper Starts Romance" last week was a mistake that got by the editor's notice and was in print before we saw it. True enough the article was printed in the Hartford Republican and was written by Mr. Thomas. Honor to whom honor is due. But we are glad to see the Republican have the courtesy to mention the name of its efficient former-editor at least once in its columns. It having given him such scanty mention on the event of his departure, after years of the most faithful service.

As soon as the colored people get to opening their eyes and seeing how the Republicans have made dupes of them all these years, the Republicans go to pointing fingers at the Democrats and crying, "Nigger domination!" The Democratic party has never courted the negro's vote nor has it made pretensions to secure the vote that it did not intend to carry out. If forty thousand negro voters vote the Democratic ticket this fall, they will do so of their own volition and not because they have been appealed to, lied to and in the end sandbagged by a bunch of office-seeking exploiters of race and kind.

The Elizabethtown News has passed the fiftieth milestone, its present editor having stood for thirty-nine years behind the editorial sanctum and directed its destinies. In passing its half century mark, the News can look back upon a past that has seen many changes and can thankfully state that as a paper it has always, fearlessly and conscientiously, championed that which its editor believed to be right. Such a record does not always spread behind a newspaper as the News boasts, lifting it above the sordid plane of individual interest to a place where it can be of community benefit. We extend greetings of the day.

There is a county poorhouse not far from Hartford which is decaying from lack of a coat of paint. It has the ramshackle appearance of a poorly painted barn, and here the county's unfortunates are housed. Inside the house is scrupulously clean and everything is trim, and the fault is not with the keeper. Mr. Charlie Smith informs us that almost ever one of the taxpayers who visit the county farm ask why the house is not painted. Soon there will have to be another house built if this is not painted. If you allow a house on your farm to rot from neglect, you will be called a bad manager, yet the county house is rotting from neglect and we are reminded under what good management the affairs of the county are being run.

THE KEY TO YOUR OWN HEART

"The Bible is the word of life. I beg that read it over for yourself—read not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it. You will find it full of real men and women not only, but also of the things you have wondered about all your life, as men have always; and the more you read it will become plain to you what things are worth while and what are not what things make mening the truth, readiness to give to make them happy, selfishness, cowardice, greed, and everything that is low and mean. When you have read the Bible you will know that it is the Word of God because you have found it the key to your own heart, your own happiness and your own duty."

—PRESIDENT WILSON

BANK ROBBERS CAUGHT

The two bank robbers who robbed the South Carrollton bank were arrested at Sutherland last week. Charles Wells, their boy accomplice was arrested the day the robbery occurred and he gave the names of the other two—Withers and Armstrong. Later the two entered a store near Russellville and attempted to sell a liberty bond. The merchant, suspecting something, tried to sell them goods as part payment and during the wrangle with them over it, notified the police and they were taken in charge and brought to Greenville. All the money and bonds except about $700 was secured.

The Land of Flowers

The Peninsula of Florida, extending down into the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic ocean, like the huge thumb of a monster hand, well deserves the title that tradition and time have bestowed upon it. For if there was ever a land of perennial blossoms, a land where the spring-time dwells perpetual and the roses never cease to blow—it is the state of Florida.

Swinging through seven states on a fast line railroad, skirting mountains and spanning rivers famed in song and story, I awoke one morn to catch my first glimpse of the land of my childhood dreams. For since my first recollections, Florida had seemed the incarnation of all that was fair and perfect in nature, a veritable paradise of never-ending summer. But it would seem I was entering the Land of Flowers at the least propitious season of the year—summer, mid-July, when the regal Southern sun is at his meridian glory. But when the low stretches of level pine lands spread before me, dotted with wee bungalows of the new settlers, hovering beneath the china berry trees, it was like entering the garden of delight which an amorous fancy has tinged with the tints of the rainbow. To my surprise, the heat was not oppressive, not nearly so much as among my native Kentucky hills; and the breeze that rose with the sun and whispered good-morning to the magnolias, came like a cooling benediction from the nearby sea.

This was not my first trip into a new section—often I had gone before into strange places and among strange scenes; but the rapture that awoke in my heart at this my first sight of my dreamland, was almost uncontrollable. I felt like crying as did the poet who first looked upon the Florida fields, after a rigorous winter in the north: "Oh Land of Pines, and Palms, and Flowers."

Oh, Land of Nature thrilling! Where soft sunshines and among the pines The mockingbirds are trilling; Where skies are blue and hearts are true, Where partings cannot sever, Oh, world anew, Where Dreams Come True, I'll leave you never, never!"

First Views of Florida
Most men form their opinions of a person or place by their first impression. This being true, I can imagine what a variety of opinion exists concerning the Flowery State for to each calling and vocation it presents a different aspect. To the cold conservative business man, the piney plains of north Florida would present everything but an inviting picture; to the shrewd investor it would hold out alluring possibilities but to the northern-born man or woman, with a beauty-loving eye, it is but a scene of natural wonder, sometimes monotonous, but ever unique and different. Crossing the St. John's river at Jacksonville, one heads southward into the forests primeval. The St. John's at this point is the broadest river upon which I have ever looked, not even the Mississippi excepted. Great gray ocean steamers come up to the Jacksonville wharfs and experience no difficulty in finding anchor room in the deep black waters of the river, for it is very deep at this point. Over its bosom glide many kinds of pleasure craft, sailboats and yachts which bear passengers to the ocean not far distant.

St. Augustine, of Henry Mien
Much has been written of St. Augustine, the oldest town in the United States, much that is true and much is otherwise. To the tourist it is pictured as a city over which hangs a halo of romance. Ghosts of the faded past and heroes of the chivalric days of the Spanish occupation are supposed to walk its streets at the first glimpses of the moon, and on entering one would suppose St. Augustine would have a mediaeval air that would give it the lavender fragrance of the times when kinghood was in flower. To me it was like any other city where the streets are sprinkled once a day, hotels charge all they can, and the stores are run by Jews. There is, it is a true, a picturesque section of the old city, that cannot help but excite your interest. The ancient Spanish fort, the old slave market, "El Constitucion," the narrow streets, the oldest house in America, which is now an old curiosity shop and many other sights charm the visitor who cares for the antique. But the sea-waves weeping on Anastasia and the rise and fall of the tide were more to me than the man-made curios of the past.

Semi-Tropical Woodlands
Leaving St. Augustine and going down the east coast, one soon enters the real semi-tropical woodlands which characterize Florida. This seems to be a perfect jungle, where liveoaks, palms, palmettos, pines and a dozen other species of trees grow so close together that one cannot crowd between them, interwoven by vines and festooned by long gray draperies of Spanish moss. Palmetto and pine "hummocks" are often passed where the land is extremely fertile and all kinds of flowers weave a fairy carpet over the ground and the palms, tall and stately, stand like sentinels against the sky. The roads are long, white and beautiful, always cool and shadowy, sometimes reaching along a wide stretch of wild rice fields, again hugging the shores of some placid river lapping lazily to the sea, or betimes piercing the dark murk of the jungle shadows.

Here one comes close to the heart of the Great Mother; here one feels the pulse beat of life as we cast aside worries and perplexities and breathe the free air of the open trail; here life grows into one delightful existence, with the blue sky above, the blue sea rimming the horizon, and the song of birds flitting through the rosy mists of dawn, in that garden of beauty, the Land of Flowers.

BAR GAINS

—AND IT'S WELL WORTH YOUR WHILE!

Through special arrangements with the manufacturers, and during this Bargain Week only, a beautiful, useful and substantial set of Cooking Ware will be given with every Majestic Range sold. This ware is good ware (not cheap ware)—it's worth a lot to you. Come and see for yourself.

And Remember--

The price of a Majestic Range this week will not be increased, and there will hardly be a great reduction for years to come, if ever, but there may be an increase soon.

TWO NEW AND IMPORTANT FEATURES

The Wonderful Unseen Riveting

Yes, it's rivet-tight, just like the old Majestic, but the rivets clinch inside of nickel-plated parts, leaving nickel smooth as glass, and there are no big, bulky bolt-heads on the inside. And, remember, rivets hold tight; bolts with only one or two threads holding are bound to work loose and cause no end of trouble. The Majestic is smooth inside and outside—it's a striking beauty—more than skin deep.

There is only one best. The public has judged. The Majestic is recognized as the standard of all ranges. ### PLAIN QUESTIONS TO HARTFORD PEOPLE

Every Hartford Reader Will Admit the Soundness of the Logic

Would Hartford people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they do if the medicine were not reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years have elapsed if their experiences did not show the remedy to be deserving of it. Statements like the following must carry conviction to the mind of every reader:

S. L. King, proprietor harness and grocery store, Main St., Hartford, says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a good medicine for kidney trouble for they have done me a great deal of good whenever I have had occasion to use them. Several times I have suffered from pains that I knew were caused from weak kidneys. At these times I have got Doan's Kidney Pills and have used them as directed. They have never failed to cure the attack." (Statement given February 23, 1912.)

On November 15, 1916, Mr. King said: "I still have an excellent opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and don't mind re-endorsing them. I use this medicine occasionally and always have excellent results."

An Englishman, Scotchman and Irishman were indulging in reminiscences of sporting occasions, says a writer in the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"The closest race I ever saw was a yacht race," deposed the Englishman, "in which one of the boats that had been recently painted won by the breadth of the coat of paint."

"The closest race I ever saw," declared the Scotchman, "was one in which a horse, stung by a bee, won by the height of the swelling on his nose."

"The closest race I ever saw," said the Irishman, "is the Scotch."

At the request of many friends, who want to see how it would look in print, we publish the following anecdote, which has been delivered as an introductory to every speech the editor has made since he hit the platform:

In the early days when riding bicycles had just come into vogue, a young lady attired herself in bicycles had just come into vogue, towns called Warem. On the road she forgot the way and inquired of some farmers who were working in a nearby field.

They were much attracted by her bloomers—the first they had ever seen—and stood speechless.

At last she grew exasperated by their silence. "Gentlemen, is this the way to Warem?" she asked.

One of them scratched his head. "I don't know, Miss," he said at last, "but if that was any other way I'd shore try it."

STOCKS OF FOOD IN STORAGE GROW AS PRICES GO UP

U. S. Trade Commission Thinks Supplies Being Withheld For Speculation

Washington, August 11.—Although prices of practically all important foods have shown a substantial increase during the last year, stocks of food held in storage on June 1 this year were approximately 20 per cent greater than those held on June 1, 1918, according to a memorandum showing the relation between storage figures and prices issued to-day by the Federal Trade Commission. Government stocks were excluded from the comparison.

"The fact that stocks of many important foods were much larger on June 1 this year than on the same date last year," said the commission's statement, while prices were as high or higher, apparently means that they are being withheld speculatively for a world demand which is not now here, but which is expected when hunger-impeled strikes secure higher wages with which higher food prices can be paid."

To show that the "law of supply and demand is not working," the commission listed eight staple foods which on June 1 showed an increase in stocks withheld from the market ranging from 3 to 298 per cent, over stocks on June 1, 1918, and in each instance there was shown to have been a substantial advance in the wholesale price during that period. Stocks of frozen fowls showed a maximum increase of 298 per cent, and the price despite this fact increased three cents a pound. Wheat stocks showed an increase of 174 per cent, with an increase in price of 31 cents; flour stocks an increase of 21 per cent, with an increase in the price per barrel of nearly $3; egg stocks an increase of 9.8 per cent, with an increase in price of 11 cents; and butter stocks an increase of 129 per cent, with the price soaring 12 cents above last year's figure. Salt beef, canned salmon and canned corn completed the items in this table, the latter showing an increase of 91 per cent, in stocks with an increase in price.

All dry storage stocks, according to the commission's figures, showed an average increase of 124 per cent. Of these not listed in the above table, stocks of rye increased 346 per cent; barley, 297 per cent; buckwheat flour, 327 per cent, and canned tomatoes, 202 per cent.

Increase in other cold storage stocks were shown as follows: Cured beef, 103 per cent; frozen lamb and mutton, 91 per cent; frozen pork, 20 per cent, and pickled pork, 10 per cent.

Mr. Vaughan, Farmer, Tells How He Lost All His Prize Sped Corn

POSSIBLE HUNTING GIRL ABDUCTOR IS OUTWITTED

100 Pursuers Find Outlaw Camp In Mountains of West Virginia Abandoned

Welch, W. Va.—The posse of 100 men armed with high-powered guns which started out to-day after a band of outlaws headed by Manderville Farley, alleged army deserter, charged with abducting and holding prisoner in the mountains near here, the 14-year-old daughter of Kenneth Abshire, a farmer, returned to-night empty handed.

They found the outlaw camp abandoned and it is believed by the men of the posse that its occupants were tipped off about their coming. Sheriff Q. J. Elliott, Mercer county, and Sheriff George Foster, Raleigh county, who headed the expedition, said they will continue the search for Farley and his band, but that their movements would be kept secret.

Abshire's daughter, it is alleged, was lured from her father's home two weeks ago by Farley, Abshire, having himself deputized as a special officer and obtaining a warrant for Farley's arrest, went into the mountains last week.

He met Farley with the girl and opened fire on the mountaineer. Although wounded by two shots from Abshire's gun, the mountaineer managed to escape with the girl when a dozen of his companions went to his assistance.

In another encounter with the band, Deputy Sheriff Edward Wills, Raleigh county, was beaten badly by the outlaws.

BOY KILLED BY GUN IN AMBUSH

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 10.—Capt. V. C. Millikin, of this city, has gone with bloodhounds to investigate the murder of the 9-year-old son of Ellisha Johnson, who was shot from ambush about 7 o'clock last night. Father and son were standing side by side on the porch of their cabin, according to the message to Millikin, when a rifle concealed in a nearby clump of bushes was fired and the boy fell dead at his father's feet. The murder has aroused the entire countryside and a posse is looking for the guilty person, according to word received here to-day. The shooting is thought to have been the result of revenge because of Johnson's demand that laws be obeyed when a lawless element of Breathitt county was advising evasion of the draft.

The shooting took place on the Middle Fork River, twelve miles from Jackson.

POPULAR SONG

When its clover blossom time in Old Kentucky,
When the sun is hot and August skies are blue,
When the chiggers and the fleas
Make you burny to your knees,
You'll be waiting for I'm coming home to you;
When the days are the longest and the farmers cuss their strongest
And one feels like life wasn't worth a dime—
You'll be waiting at the gate,
Early morn and evening late,
In old Kentuck in clover-blossom time.

It is a proverb of Cherry Blossom Land that beauty of face and figure depend on womanly health.

What is it that makes our American women often pale, sorrowful, with dark circles under the eyes, and very often old at forty-five when they should be in their prime?

Women suffer in girlhood from backache, spine-ache and headaches, followed by irregularities and as a result diseases of the womanly organs are more common than any one but a physician in active practice could suppose.

After long experience in the treatment of women's diseases, Dr. Pierce evolved a vegetable tonic and corrective which he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a purely vegetable preparation, without a particle of alcohol contained in it.

When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or bearing-down, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or in liquid form. Dr. Pierce of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send a trial size of the tablets for cents.

What Your Neighbors Say.

Beaver Dam, Ky.
August 1, 1919.

Messrs. J. D. Williams & Sons,
Beaver Dam, Ky.

Gentlemen:

We began using the De Laval separator in May 1918 and to say we are pleased with it is putting it very mild. Never has there been a time since we bought it but what we have received a better price for our butter fat than we did for our butter and two months last winter when good country butter was selling for 40 cents per pound, we were receiving 73 cents per pound for our butter fat and got out of the extra work of churning and marketing our butter.

It is much easier to clean and care for the separator than it is to clean and care for the pans and jars necessary to handle milk in the old way and we get so much more and so much better cream with less work. We wouldn't sell our De Laval at any price if we couldn't get another one.

Yours truly,

MRS. GEORGE A. BARNES.
